

MUST-VISIT DESTINATIONS IN ASIA FOR FOODIES

TAIPEI

Sample unique snacks such as taro fried balls with salted egg essence. Oyster omelets are a unique taste of the sea and are very filling and satisfying. There's even roasted sausage stuffed with rice.

THAILAND

Pad Thai, green curry, and tom yum are local and cheap dishes that are very popular internationally but can be enjoyed locally for extremely low prices.

VIETNAM

Bun bo hue is a go-to that uses a spicy broth with an instant depth using different cuts of pork. Banh xeo is a crispy seafood pancake that uses prawn, minced pork, lettuce, and fresh herbs.

MALAYSIA

Malaysian cuisine is a blend of cultures such as Indian, Thai, Chinese, and Malaysian. Curry laksa is a heartwarming bannet bauche that you should try. Make sure to eat it slowly to enjoy the full infusion of flavors.

INDONESIA

Try out the meatball soup, sweet-filled pancakes, and sticky rice omelets. Pork satay and crazy fried rice are some memorable signatures to try in Indonesia.

JAPAN

There are tons of fun and unique foodie experiences in the capital but explore further and take a look at Fukuoka. This is north of Kyushu and you can choose from over 150 open-air food stalls for all kinds of Japanese delicacies.

KOREA

The real hidden gems are family restaurants that are sprawled about throughout the country. You can't find these very easily and you might need a local to guide you. But you can get some authentic flavors and cook for great prices here.

KEY TAKEAWAY

Each of these places is an amazing melting pot of culture and flavor. Head over to these places now to satisfy your taste buds!

REFERENCES:

- <https://www.thetravelteam.com/7-of-the-best-food-cities-in-asia/>
- <https://www.flights.com/blog/the-top-10-asian-destinations-for-foodies/>
- <https://www.freme.com/asias-10-greatest-street-food-cities-worth-travelling/>
- <https://www.tripsavvy.com/southeast-asia-best-cities-for-street-food-4142659>